

CANBERRA
BUSINESS COUNCIL

MEDIA RELEASE

27 May 2011

MR JIM MURPHY

Canberra Business Council was deeply saddened to learn of the passing of Jim Murphy and extends its sincere condolences and sympathy to his family and friends.

“Jim was a respected and active member of the Canberra Business Council and a tireless supporter and promoter of local businesses,” Canberra Business Council CEO, Chris Faulks said.

“He was an Honorary Ambassador for the ACT and raised the profile of our region, both overseas and nationally, as a great place to do business.

“In addition, Jim contributed generously to local charities and gave selflessly of his time and knowledge to many not-for-profit organisations.

“The whole of the Canberra community will miss Jim and his loss will certainly be strongly felt and mourned by the business sector.”
